

Mentor Sentence: Week Three

“Miss Olivia didn’t move, she didn’t blink, but slowly, quietly, she began to think....” from The Sunsets of Miss Olivia Wiggins by Lester L. Laminack

Day One Invitation to Notice: List 3 things you notice about the sentence.

Day Two Invitation to Notice-Parts of Speech: Write each word and its part of speech common noun = n

proper noun = N
pronoun = pro
adjective = adj
article = art
helping verb = hv
action verb = av
linking verb = lv
adverb = adv
preposition = prep
conjunction = con
interjection = int

Day Three Invitation to Revise: Rewrite the sentence to make it more interesting or to change the meaning.

Day Four Invitation to Imitate: Write a new sentence in the same style as the mentor sentence:

Day Five Invitation to Analyze

Type of sentence: _____ Format of sentence: _____

Simple subject(s): _____ Complete subject: _____

Simple predicate(s): _____ Complete predicate: _____

Point of View: _____