

Name _____

Jeopardy

Chapter 2

Date _____

Grade _____

War, What Is It Good For?	Battles	Important Documents	Important People	Political Potpourri
They saw their lifestyles as an advantage for better preparing their soldiers for war _____	This battle cut the Confederacy in two _____	A statement giving freedom to slaves in all Confederate states still at war with the Union _____	He used the "Total War" method of warfare to help the North win the American Civil War _____	The Reconstruction Acts gave these people the right to vote _____
The North used this war strategy to keep the South from getting much needed supplies _____	This 3-day struggle was won by the North, and Lincoln later made a famous speech there _____	This abolished slavery in the United States of America _____	He surrendered to General Grant at Appomattox Court House, Virginia _____	Congress thought Johnson's Reconstruction Plan was too _____ on the South _____
They thought their opponents would just grow tired of fighting and eventually give up _____	Because of a blockade preventing supplies from reaching them, these soldiers often fought in bare feet _____	Speech given by Lincoln that made it clear a united nation and the end of slavery were worth fighting for _____	Famous photographer who took pictures in soldiers' camps and on the battlefields _____	These people contributed to the war effort by caring for soldiers, running businesses, and acting as spies _____
New military technology gave the armies more accurate weapons, resulting in many more of these _____	These men were allowed to join the Union army and engaged the Confederates in combat _____	Gave African Americans citizenship, and said they had equal protection under the law _____	Civil War nurse who created the American Red Cross _____	Laws passed after Reconstruction that enforced the segregation of blacks and whites _____
This war tactic destroys everything in its path, and is designed to take away the people's will to fight _____	The 54th Regiment led an attack on this fort in South Carolina, proving that black soldiers could fight as well as white soldiers _____	Gave all male citizens the right to vote, regardless of race, color, or previous servitude _____	He became the new president when Abraham Lincoln died _____	Agency established to help former slaves after the Civil War _____