Legend/Myth/Tall Tale Reading Log

Book Title: _____

Author: _____

After reading one of your teachers' favorite legends, myths, or tall tales, use the book you read to answer the questions below.
Then fill in the matching square on your Bingo Board, and staple this form to your Bingo Board.

1. Is this story a legend, myth, or tall tale? How do you know?

2. What is the setting of your story? Describe it.

3. Judge the main character's actions in the story and describe how you might have acted differently. Think carefully about your decisions and justify your answer.

4. Was the main character in the book good or bad? Defend your decision with examples from the book.

5. What part of the story was the funniest? Most exciting? Saddest? Choose one and explain why.

6. What time structure does the author use in your book? (chronological/flashbacks/etc.) Give one example to prove why you think this.

7. Select one of the characters in the story and think of something he/she would do if they came to your class during reading.

8. Choose the most powerful adjective you found in the passage you read tonight. Define the adjective, then write your own sentence using this powerful adjective.

9. Make a timeline of events in the book. Use the back of this sheet if necessary. List at least 3 events.

10. Think about the story. Write two new titles for the story that would give others a good idea about the story.
